Pastoral Introduction

Please read this before the service begins.

A wedding is one of life's great moments, a time of solemn commitment as well as good wishes, feasting and joy.

St John tells us how Jesus shared in such an occasion at Cana, and gave there a sign of new beginnings as he turned water into wine.

Marriage is intended by God to be a creative relationship, as his blessing enables husband and wife to love and support each other in good times and in bad, and to share in the care and upbringing of children. For Christians, marriage is also an invitation to share life together in the spirit of Jesus Christ. It is based upon a solemn, public and life-long covenant between a man and a woman, declared and celebrated in the presence of God and before witnesses.

On this their wedding day the bride and bridegroom face each other, make their promises and receive God's blessing. You are witnesses of the marriage, and express your support by your presence and your prayers. Your support does not end today: the couple will value continued encouragement in the days and years ahead of them.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

*The prayers conclude with the Lord's Prayer. Please choose a version.

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom
the power and the glory
for ever and ever.
Amen.

A hymn is sung.

The Dismissal

Wedding March from A Midsummer's Night Dream - Mendelssohn

There is no formal collection at a wedding service, but we would appreciate any offering that you can make in your generosity. Your church needs funds and help for its work, which is funded almost entirely by the local congregation, here at West Moors. We welcome you to our regular services of worship on Sundays and during the week.

Confetti is welcomed outside church BUT NOT plastic or metallic.
